WEDDINGS AT CHESTERS PLANNING YOUR PERFECT DAY

Your wedding day is guaranteed to be one of the most romantic moments of your life, and at Chesters we aim to make it more beautiful than you ever thought possible. Our flexibility as a venue and willingness to cater to your every need will ensure the whole event exceeds even your own wildest expectations.

THE HOUSE

With four perfectly-proportioned public rooms and views over the sweeping lawn, the house itself is an ideal venue for hosting everything from a small ceremony and wedding breakfast to a large drinks reception. There can be few more beautiful places to exchange your vows than the elegant drawing room with its stunning Venetian chandelier, and the symmetrical Georgian layout of the public rooms mean they are well-suited to large numbers. The house can be used in tandem with a marquee on the lawn, whilst bedrooms and other facilities for changing can be made available to the bridal party throughout the day.

MARQUEE AND GROUNDS

The front lawn at Chesters, perched above a ha-ha and a slope that drops away to the River Teviot, can accommodate marquees of all sizes and styles. The layout of the driveway allows for people to be dropped right at the entrance to both the marquee and house, and with the stunning Scottish Borders countryside surrounding you, it is hard to conceive of a more memorable backdrop to your day.

And if you want to wrap up proceedings with a post-wedding barbeque the following day, the grounds come into their own all over again – we can even throw in a little fishing for any members of the wedding party who find themselves at a loose end!
